Local and Miscellaneous.

Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie will be exhibited in town to-day, Of course, everybody who can make it convennient will go to the show. Van Amburgh, the great lion tamer, will enter the enges of the lions, tigers, leopards, &c., the mammoth elephant, Hannibal, will be trotted out, and the monkey and his pony will "play circus," together with many other interesting features. This is the most extensive and varied collection of animals in America, and is well worth a visit. Go, and take along with you all the little folks.

Yesterday morning before sunrise the thermometer stood at 84° above zero.-Rather warm weather for so early an hour in the morning.

KURTZ still busies himself in fortiflying his numerous friends and fustomers against the enervating effects of the heated term, by supplying them with the coolest beverages daily.

H. Nelson & Co. sell at auction, this morning at 9 o'clock, at their auction room, a lot of good manufactured tobacco. Come without money and without price, as it sold on a credit of six months, and the sale positively without reserve.

James Morris, charged with being one of the persons who committed the assult and robbery on a German in the lockup, was taken before Recorder McBride yesterday, for a hearing, and sent back to prison in default of $200 bail.

As there is great danger of melting these hot days, it would be advisable for you to go at once to the City Gallery and have your picture taken by Randall, so that your friends may possess the relic. "Secure the shadow ere the substance perish, is good advice at this time.

RAINS .- Copious and welcome rains fall at Louisville and its vicinity, on Saturday, refreshing the parched earth and gladdening the people. Along the Upper Wabash rains have been abundant, and a friend, who re turned from Southern Illinois and Posey county on Saturday, says he found the roads quite beavy with mud till within a few miles of this city. Here we have had no showers since the 2d inst.

REDUCTION .- A reduction has been made in the prices of fine clothing, at Lyons', as he is desirous of closing out his large and well assorted stock of fine clothing before starting East. His customers can depend on getting first-class garments at his establishment, as he has been, weekly, receiving fresh goods from New York, and has nearly all the clothing he receives made to his order at Devlin's.

A printer, calling himself Daniel Scott, supposed to hail from Richmond, Indiana, absconded from Memphis last week, leaving his landlord minus two weeks board, and also swindling his fellow boarders, saloon keepers, and washer-woman. He is about thirty-five years of age, five feet six ter's Bitters, as a tonic, is too well known to need or seven inches in height, thick set, fair praise. It is therefore scarcely necessary at this complexion, with small moustache on upper lip and chin, hair dark, and tinged with gray. He wears tolerably good clothes, and cin assume a gentlemanly address. When he left Memphis he was known to have money enough to have settled his bills. The person described above called at the Journal Office, yesterday, and representing himself as being in straitened circumstances, received pecuniary assistance. As he is a disgrace to the craft, we belp "pass him around."

The Memphis Enquirer says that on Tuesday last, Mrs. Margaret Slatter, the wife of a sober, honest, and hard working man, of that city, while crossing the bayou with a bucket of water in her hands, was attacked by a number of vicious dogs, and her limbs literally bitten to the bone. Mr. McGraw, living in the vicinity, bearing the agonizing shrieks of the victim, hastened to truly irresistible. At first the virtues ascribed to her assistance and received a severe bite fabutons. A fellow named Albert Hamby, who stated that he came from Louisville to this city, was arrested several days ago, by the city Marshal, on the charge of having stolen goods in his possession. As no person came before the Recorder to claim the goods he was discharged, and ordered to leave the city, which he promised to do. On Saturday night he was again arrested for stealing, and on Monday morning was taken before the Recorder, who held him to bail in the sum of $500, in default of which he was sent to jail. Hamby has a physiognomy which would at once condemn into as a villain. He will, doubtless, be compelled to serve the State at Jeffersonville

Pimples and Skin Diseas to arethe result of impure blood. The blood becomes thick and clogged. The skin is not able to cast off the impurities so important to health. How many young men and women we see with their faces covered with pimples and blotches, who are endeavoring to remove them by the use of scops and washes of various kinds. This is very dangerous, and should never be practised by persons desirons of good health. Mothers who have children afflicted with sores and eruptions, should never dry them by external applications, for in this way they will drive in the humors and produce ill health for the child during its whole life time -There is no mother that likes to see her children

We are rejoiced to find that the renowned Chemist of New England, DOCT. AYER, has at length turned his attention to the disorder which hangs like a blight on our community. Our section is as healthy as any other, with one single exception, and that is the Fever and Ague, which hannts us on every side. But his remedy does cure, as we should know it must, if he made it .-Cast out this baleful distemper from among us, and ours is one of the loveliest spots in the west .- Sentinel, Fairfield, Inea.

One of the most pleasing, at the same tima effective remedies for Dyspepsia, and all other diseases arising from a morbid condition of the stomach and liver, is Dr. Hostetter's Bitters. It not only removes the disease from the system, but by giving tone to the organs of digestion, aids them in their functions. All who have tried it, acknowledge its excellence and superiority, and we. therefore commend it to the sufferer.
